Firefox 3.5

Not directly Linux related, but it still affects us all. Firefox 3.5 has been released. I assume some of us have downloaded it. What is everyone's impression of it?

SCO Receives Money

Everyone's favorite Linux distribution has received some funding through a buy-out. What will they do from here?

Chrome Developer Bashes Linux

Last month a Google Chrome developer bashed Linux. Not a consistent graphical toolkit, GTK sucks, and other things. What do people think of this? Is Linux's diversity a liability?
